EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Steven B. Samuels (Registration No. 37,711) on 1/10/2008.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 14,

Line 3, before "a runtime" insert a processing unit to perform the following:

In claim 27,

Line 1, delete ~~computer-readable medium~~ insert computer storage medium

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1,3-5,7-14,16-18 and 20-27 are allowable over the prior art of record. The closest prior art of record is Barry et al. ('Barry' hereinafter) ("Solving the Java object storage problem", by Douglas Barry and Torsten Stanienda, Computer, Volume 31, Issue 11, Nov. 1998, Page(s):33 - 40, IEEE), which teaches that the object of a class is capable of being persisted in a database store, however Barry fails to teach formats by which the class specifies how to persist instances of user-defined aggregate objects in a data storage, these limitations being indicated in claim 1 as "that the class specify one of a plurality of different formats which describes how instances of the user-defined aggregate are to be persisted in a database store" and in claim 14 as "that the class specify one of a plurality of different formats which describes how instances of the user-defined aggregate are to be persisted in a database store".

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
